

EYP-Ukraine is happy to announce approaching VinSpring National Selection 2012, which is to take place in the charming city of Vinnitsa between 2nd and 5th of March 2012.

Session will gather 100 delegates (80 Ukrainians and 20 foreigners) and around 30 officials (chairpersons, journalists, organisers) in order to discuss the most essential European problems under the general topic: “Naturally connected”.

Each of the 8 committees led by a couple of International and Ukrainian chairperson will go through traditional EYP activities. The most talented and active Ukrainian delegates will be selected to represent EYP-Ukraine at two International Sessions in Istanbul and Amsterdam.

EYP-Ukraine is honored to have Mr. Sebastian Hosu from Austria as Session's President.

Now the Call is open for Ukrainian and foreign delegates!

Applications are to be sent to nationals2012@eyp-ua.org by:

25th of January (for FOREIGN delegates)

5th of February (for UKRAINIAN delegates).

Please, keep in mind that good quality application is one of the selection criteria for the Delegates.

Participation fee is 35 euro (for the foreign delegates only). Travel costs to and from the Session are at your own expenses. Foreign delegations are also welcome.
